

Entry Terms and Conditions

- The right of admission is reserved. In particular, Event Management reserve the right to refuse entry to, or to remove from, the Field Days any persons who are drunk or disorderly or whose conduct is unlawful or offensive. Any person who causes a disturbance or who refuses to comply with reasonable requests from Event Management may be removed from the Field Days.
- Bags and other items may be subject to inspection and Patrons may be searched. Patrons who refuse inspections or searches may be denied entry to the Field Days.
- No Pets allowed. Service animals specifically trained to aid a person with a disability are welcome.
- Pass-outs may be issued at the discretion of Event Management.
- Alcoholic beverages must not be taken into or out of the Field Days. It is an offence for minors to purchase or consume alcohol or for persons to supply alcohol to minors.
- Patrons acknowledge that Event Management may use a Patron's image or likeness as part of any recording of the event.
- Patrons assume all risk of any damage or loss (including property damage, personal injury, economic and consequential loss) however it arises at the Field Days. Patrons bring personal effects onto the premises at their own risk. Event Management will not be responsible for any damage to or loss or theft of a Patron's personal property.
- Smoking is prohibited in all areas of the Field Days.
- Student tickets will only be sold to patrons with a validated student ID card that must be shown at time of purchase.
- Event Management reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, to cancel or postpone the Field Days for any reason. No refund will be available on admission charges.
